

Pro Charge Batteries Limited Warranty

Pro Battery Shops warrants that its Pro Charge line of batteries (herein after referred to as the “Battery”) is free of defects in materials and workmanship for the warranty period specified for individual batteries covered under this warranty.

Should your Battery fail due to a manufacturer’s defect while covered under this warranty, a replacement Battery (identical or if an identical replacement is not available a reasonable replacement for the particular application with the same / similar electrical ratings) shall be provided at no costs to you.

Your warranty takes effect from the original date of purchase and extends for the warranty period specified for your particular Battery and application. It is recommended that you maintain your original receipt of purchase to establish your date of purchase. Otherwise, Pro Battery Shops or its assigns will estimate your date of purchase based on information derived from the Battery. Such estimation will be final.

What To Do In The Event of A Claim:

- 1. Return the Battery to Pro Battery Shops or the dealer that you purchased the battery from along with your proof of purchase (if available).
- 2. Reasonable time must be provided to inspect and test your Battery for defects and if necessary, to change the Battery.
- 3. If the Battery is determined by Pro Battery Shops, or its assigns, to be defective under the terms of this limited warranty, it will be replaced.
- 4. Should your Battery be replaced under the terms of this warranty, the remaining balance of warranty coverage from the original date of purchase will be transferred to the replacement Battery. Your replacement Battery will not have any new or separate warranty coverage.

Exclusions:

Pro Battery Shops shall have no obligation under this limited warranty, and this limited warranty shall be deemed void, if:

- 1. When tested your Battery is found to be discharged and can be recharged and returned to service.
- 2. Upon inspection, your Battery is found to have sustained physical damage due to misuse, improper handling procedures or improper installation.
- 3. Upon inspection, your Battery is found to have been altered or repaired by anyone other than Pro Battery Shops or its assigns.
- 4. Your Battery is damaged by forces of nature, vandalism, theft, collision or any other manner that cannot be attributed to a defect in the materials or workmanship used to manufacture the Battery.
- 5. The Battery is used in an application that the original equipment manufacturer specifies higher cranking amps and or higher reserve capacities.
